8) Plants

Plants are extraordinary living things. Although they seem simple, they are actually, in some ways, more complicated than us.

For instance, a whole new plant can be grown from just a single leaf. The way that plants distribute their seeds is amazing too. Plants can send them flying on the wind, or grow spines that attach seeds to animals' fur, spreading new generations everywhere.

Plants are also amazingly adaptable, finding ways to grow even in impossible environments. Plants manufacture their own food from sunlight, absorb nutrients from the ground, and fool insects into spreading their pollen. Truly, they are some of nature's finest creations.

3) Clever Centipede

A single man wanted someone to help him with the household chores, so he decided to get a pet to help out. He went to the local pet shop and asked the owner for advice on a suitable animal. The owner suggested a dog, but the man said:

"Nah, dogs can't do dishes."

The owner then suggested a cat, but the man said, "Nah, cats can't do the ironing."
Finally the owner suggests a centipede, "This is the perfect pet for you. It can do anything!"
"OK," the man thought, "I'll give it a try," so he bought it and took it home.
Once home he told the centipede to wash the dishes.
Five minutes later, all the pots are washed, dried, and put away.
Then he told the centipede to do the dusting and vacuuming.
Fifteen minutes later the house is spotless.

"Go down to the corner and get me the evening paper," he told the centipede, and off it went.
Forty-five minutes later the man was sick of waiting, so he got up and went out to look for the centipede.
As he opened the front door, there on the step was the centipede.
"Hey, what are you doing there? I sent you out for the paper 45 minutes ago and now I find you out here without the paper! What gives?"
"Hold on a minute!" said the centipede, "I'm still putting on my boots!".

7) My city

My city isn't a bad city however it's nothing to get too excited about either. Because it's a quiet city with very little crime, lots of people move here to start families. There are plenty of schools and several parks. There are also quite a number of jobs. People work in both offices and factories.

I'm ready to move to another place. I want to see other cities and other countries. I think it's important to learn new things and explore other cultures. I like to spend time with people who have ideas that are different from my ideas. It helps me to see things in a new way.

Keith recently came back from a trip to Chicago, Illinois. This midwestern metropolis is found along the shore of Lake Michigan. During his visit, Keith spent a lot of time exploring the city to visit important landmarks and monuments. Keith found the Chicago Water Tower impressive as it is one of the few remaining landmarks to have survived the Great Chicago Fire of 1871.

Keith loves baseball, and he made sure to take a visit to Wrigley Field. Not only did he take a tour of this spectacular stadium, but he also got to watch a Chicago Cubs game. In the stadium, Keith and the other fans cheered for the Cubs. Keith was happy that the Cubs won with a score of 5-4.

1) Goodbye Mother!

A young man was walking through a supermarket to pick up a few things when he noticed an old lady following him around. Thinking nothing of it, he ignored her and continued on.

Finally he went to the checkout line, but she got in front of him. "Pardon me," she said, "I'm sorry if my staring at you has made you feel uncomfortable. It's just that you look just like my son. As I'm leaving, can you say 'Good bye, Mother'? It would make me feel so much better."

"Sure," answered the young man. As the old woman was leaving, he called out, "Goodbye, Mother!" As he stepped up to the checkout counter, he saw that his total was £127.50.

"How can that be?" He asked, "I only purchased a few things!" "Your mother said that you would pay for her," said the clerk.

Last April, John took a trip to Las Vegas, Nevada. Las Vegas is a popular destination in the western portion of the United States. The town is most popular for its casinos, hotels, and exciting nightlife. The Strip, which is a 2.5 mile stretch, at night looks especially beautiful. All of the buildings light up with bright, neon signs to attract visitor attention.

A stay in Las Vegas can feel similar to a visit to many popular cities worldwide. Many of the hotels have miniature versions of important international sites and monuments. These famous landmarks include the Eiffel Tower, Venice, and even ancient Rome.
